

Sveafastigheter once again named Best Real Estate Investment Manager in the Nordic and Baltic region

The Nordic property fund manager Sveafastigheter has, for the fifth time in six years, been named best real estate investment manager in the in the Nordic and Baltic region by the leading international finance magazine Euromoney.

Euromoney canvassed the opinions of real estate advisors, developers, investment managers, corporate end-users and banks in over 60 countries and regions worldwide. The respondents ranked which firms they thought were the best providers of real estate products and services over the past twelve months.

- We are pleased to once again receive the award for best real estate investment manager in the Nordic and Baltic region, which is our home region. Sveafastigheter started its first fund in 2003 and has received top Euromoney awards on its primary markets since the survey started in 2005. The fact that the respondents represent a broad range of investors and participants on the real estate market is a clear recognition that Sveafastigheter's business model is successful and respected, says Sveafastigheter's CEO Johan Tengelin.
