

Brunswick Real Estate – Investment Banking changes name to Nordanö

Stockholm, 27 April 2018

In early 2017, Leimdörfer, Sveafastigheter and Brunswick Real Estate Capital were grouped under the common brand Brunswick Real Estate. However, the two business areas – on the one hand, property-related asset management, and on the other investment banking and advisory services – have in reality been conducted in separate companies with essentially different ownership groups.

In order to clarify the independence of the two businesses, both operationally and in terms of ownership, the advisory business now changes name to Nordanö, while the investment management retains the name Brunswick Real Estate.

"The team at Nordanö has for more than 25 years been the advisor for a sizeable share of the largest and most complex transactions in our market. As a partner-owned and independent company focused on the Nordic region, we hope to further strengthen our position under our new name", says Erik Eliasson, partner at Nordanö.

"Brunswick Real Estate stands for long-term relationships and value-creating investments, which are values that have followed us over the fifteen years we have been operating in the Nordic real estate market. By separating the advisory services from investment management, we clarify our focus as an investor", says Svante Andreen, partner at Brunswick Real Estate.
